

Subject: WORK IMMERSION

Topic: Post- Immersion: Compare & Contrast: School & Work Application of Skills & Attitude

Prepared by: MEZCEVILLE J. GABRILLAS
Semester: SECOND

Grade: 12
Week: 13

QUEST: Evaluating the work immersion experience by comparing and contrasting school and work application of skill, knowledge, and attitudes.

EQUIP: SCHOOL & WORK APPLICATION OF SKILLS & ATTITUDE

What is a School?

- An institute for educating children
- An institution at which instruction is given in a particular discipline

What is Work?

- Perform work or fulfil duties regularly for wages or salary
- Perform or carry through a task requiring sustained effort or continuous repeated operations.
- To exert oneself physically or mentally especially effort for a purpose or under compulsion or necessity
- To function or operate according to plan or design
- To exert an influence or tendency
- To make way slowly and with difficulty; move or progress laboriously
- To move slightly in relation to another part
- To permit of being worked; react in a specified way to being worked

The main differences between work and school?

- Is to get paid at work for the amount you do and how many hours you do. As where as in school you don't get paid for the amount of hours you do and what you do, the work hours are different than school hours the reason being that workers would have to work over time to get paid extra.

How are work expectations different from school expectations?

SCHOOL

- At school, you expect to get a lower grade.
- Follow the rules
- Be on time
- Be prepared for class
- Be considerate and respectful
- Show respect for school property and other students.
- Hand in assignments on time
- Wait to be dismissed

- Actively participate in class discussion
- Stay seated during classroom activities
- Help each other
- Work quietly and follow directions
- Raise your hand before speaking

WORK

"Quality Christian Education: Our Goal, Our Commitment"

- At work, employers terminate employees who don't complete their work assignments.
- Display a positive and respectful attitude.
- Work with honesty and integrity
- Represent the organization in a responsible manner
- Perform their jobs to a reasonable, acceptable standard
- Maintain good attendance
- Conduct themselves in a professional manner, even when off duty
- Follow set policies and procedures when dealing with problems or issues.
- Proper training, support and leadership
- Timely and accurate payment of wages
- Safe and healthy working environments
- Full disclosure and explanation of the job responsibilities , company policies and procedures
- Regular feedback on performance from supervisor or managers
- Access to the resources they need to perform their work tasks efficiently and properly
- Fair and consistent communication and application of policies(e.g. performance , discipline , conduct) across the team
- Credit and acknowledgement for work achievements.

How is school and the work environment different?

The most significant difference of work life from school life is that you gain independence- you are out in the real world. In school, you are assigned grades for completing your assignments. In school you are accountable to your professor whereas at work you are accountable to your boss.

STACK:

The main differences are that you get paid at work for the amount you do and how many hours you do. As where as in school you don't get paid for the amount of hours you do and what you do? the work hours are different than school hours the reason being that workers would have to work over time to get paid extra.

References:

- <https://quizlet.com>

