

Learning Competency:

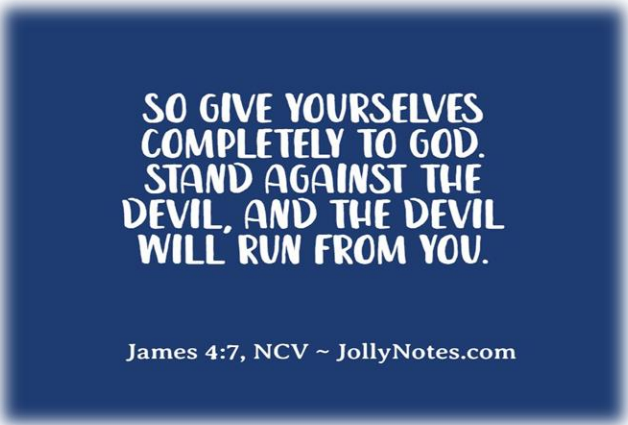

*Dear brothers and sister, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all He has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice- the kind He will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship Him.
Don't copy the behaviour and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.*

Romans 12:1-2

Activity 1:

What do you have that you can offer to God? Write/Draw it inside the box.

- The idea of self-sacrifice runs contrary to the values of our culture. Subtle (suh tle- setol) and not-so-subtle messages continually tell us to put ourselves first, demand our rights, and determine our own path. But God calls His people to lay themselves down on an altar as living sacrifices. In other words, we are to be separated from the world and given to the Lord for His purposes.
- Considering all that God has done for us in Christ, our response should be deliberate and voluntary submission. We give ourselves and the control of our life unreservedly to the One who has showered us with compassion and mercy by saving our soul from the grip of sin. Wherever He sends us, we go; whatever He requires of us, we do; and whatever He wants, we desire as well.

LET'S DIG IN!

Ways to offer our self to God

1. Offer your Body as living Sacrifice

- a. Offer it to God and not to anyone or anything else.
- b. God made you, and HE deserves you
- c. You are a child of GOD, not of the enemy.

3. Being Acceptable to God

- a. The most important aspect of our service to God is the answer to the question, "Does God find what I do acceptable?" If not, then my worship is vain. Many seem to think that He is pleased with just about anything as long as it's pretty. It is not so that "If I like it, then so must God
- b. True service and devotion to God involves replacing our wills with His. This is the "living sacrifice" of this verse.

WORDS TO PONDER

- a. Considering all that God has done for us in Christ, our response should be deliberate and voluntary submission. We give ourselves and the control of our life unreservedly to the One who has showered us with compassion and mercy by saving our soul from the grip of sin. Wherever He sends us, we go; whatever He requires of us, we do; and whatever He wants, we desire as well.
- b. This is not a one-time decision that forever sets the course of our life; rather, it's a daily surrender to His will. At each moment, we have the option to grumble about our situation or to acknowledge God's right to be in charge.
- c. As believers, we're wise to remember that there is no better choice than to wholeheartedly trust our God, who has infinite knowledge, unfailing love, and almighty power. To crawl off the altar and rely on our limited understanding, self-interest, and human weakness will result in rebellion and its difficult consequences.
- d. To become a living sacrifice to the Lord is not only a duty but also a privilege. When we fully surrender to Him, He will transform us into the image of His Son Jesus, use us to further His kingdom, and bless our life with the fruit of the Holy Spirit.
